12. Community Information:

- a. UJA Federation of Northern New Jersey, in partnership with The Foundation for Jewish Camp is offering $1000 incentive camperships to first-time campers at Jewish overnight camps. As we know, attending an overnight Jewish camp is one of the most powerful ways to build Jewish identity and commitment in young people. At camp, Jewish values, connection to Israel, and the culture of Judaism are entwined into every aspect of daily activity in a warm, fun, and nurturing environment. A growing body of research indicates that experience in a quality Jewish camp is associated with increased Jewish identity, affiliation and practice. ELIGIBILITY: Students residing in the UJANNJ community who will be enrolled in a three-week overnight camp run by a not-for-profit Jewish camp are eligible; students who attend public or secular private schools are eligible; if a camper was previously enrolled in a Jewish overnight camp of less than three weeks or went to a non-Jewish camp, s/he would be eligible. Please promote this wonderful program to your families. Please consider emailing the attached piece to your school and congregation. Moreover, we hope that you will take the opportunity to promote Jewish overnight camp and the availability of the first-time camper stipends in your weekly/monthly newsletters, Shabbat bulletins, pulpit announcements, school assemblies, etc. If you would like hard copies of the flier, please email: friedah@ujannj.org
