

Family and Young Family Programming at Temple Israel & JCC

TI-JCC offers a diverse array of worship, educational programs, social events and activities for families and younger adults in our community.

Family Shabbat — Monthly Saturday morning programs

Tot Shabbat for newborns through age 6 with parents and/or grandparents. Songs, stuffed Torah parade, challah and a chance to spend time with other young families.

Junior Congregation — Professionally led service featuring opportunities for prayers, read Torah and learn! Students to lead.

Join the congregation for Kiddush after the service.

Pre-K & K — Our Sunday morning religious school classes for our youngest students

Start your child's Jewish Journey on the right foot with songs, crafts and fun! Introduction to prayers, Hebrew letters and holidays. Weekly Sunday classes for ages 4-5 and monthly classes for tots ages 2-3

Ages 2-4, $40/year; Ages 4-5, $95/year

Grades 1-7 — Experiential and fun!

Innovative Jewish education program makes Judaism fun featuring field trips, music, cooking, group projects, social action, crafts and more! Let us help guide your child on his/her Jewish journey. Professional teaching staff guides our students as they learn prayers, Hebrew and a love of Judaism.

Grades 1 & 2 meet Sundays

Grades 3-7 meet Sundays and Wednesdays

Youth Groups— Grades 6-12

Youth groups build lasting friendships and memories for our children through service, leadership opportunities, and social events. We offer the Kadima program in grades 6-8 and USY for grades 9-12.

B'Yachad — for “younger” adult members and families

Join us for monthly social events that like potluck dinners, bowling, apple picking and more. Sign up for emails:

TempleIsraelByachad@gmail.com

For more information about our religious school, contact Jessica Spiegel, Education Director at jspiegel@synagogue.org or call (201) 444-4194. Read about all our great programming for children and adults of all ages, and check our online calendar for events and updates, at www.synagogue.org.