Voter-Progression-Suppression-Regression in NJ

- ◆ A history of voting in NJ
- ◆ A progression and regression in the voting system
- ◆ Who is affected by voting restrictions or broken systems
- ◆ Voter ID laws
- ◆ Meaningful participation
- ◆ How can this system be fixed?

Scott Salmon is a partner at Jardim, Meisner & Susser, P.C., based out of Florham Park, where he practices election law, government representation, and employment law.

Scott advises and represents political campaigns at every level, from local to federal, on various election-related issues, including ballot access, canvassing, advertisements, and recounts.

Scott currently represents the Tom Malinowski for Congress campaign as its General Counsel.

Among his notable achievements include getting Kanye West removed from the presidential ballot in New Jersey due to alleged voter fraud; (1) preventing an individual charged with election fraud from being sworn into office in Paterson; (2) and guaranteeing bilingual ballots in New Jersey municipalities that have significant Hispanic populations.
