

Join Reverend Mack Brandon
of The Metropolitan A.M.E. Church in a stimulating discussion

America at the Crossroads—August 2,
7:30pm On Zoom <https://us02web.zoom.us/j/82331175499>

- ◇ Finding Ourselves in community.
- ◇ Where will our faith lead us?
- ◇ What is our role as community stakeholders?
- ◇ Shall our histories join or separate us?

Reverend Mack Brandon has been the Pastor of the Metropolitan A.M.E. Zion Church in Ridgewood, NJ since 2010. He came to Ridgewood in 1984 to serve as the Music Minister. He is also a professor on the faculty of Ramapo College since 1994 where he is a musician of the first order. He has for the past year hosted a Wednesday evening community zoom conversation interviewing diverse village, state, and national personalities, whose work has promoted goodwill and social justice.

This hour of discussion is an opportunity to open dialogue about issues, both local and beyond, through the lenses of culture and faith.

TEMPLE
ISRAEL

